

Helpful Links When Going Abroad.

Scouting Ireland wish to set you and your Scout Group up for a safe and successful trip abroad whether that be an International Camp, an individual volunteering abroad or as part of a delegation on an International Volunteer opportunity. We have compiled the links below and ask that you review them prior to travelling abroad.

- For vaccinations and health queries:

- For advice from the Department of Foreign Affairs the following links will help you understand the local laws, customs and requirements for the country of choice:
Travel Advice By Destination | Department of Foreign Affairs | Ireland.ie
- For advice on security, passports, female travellers, members of the LGBTQIA+, visas, etc.:
Know Before You Go | Ireland.ie
- Not every country has an Irish embassy or consulate within its borders, so for information on the embassy relevant to your country of travel please consult the following link:
Irish Embassies and Consulates Abroad | Department of Foreign Affairs | Ireland.ie
- For Assistance while travelling abroad:
Assistance Abroad | Travel | Department Of Foreign Affairs | Ireland.ie | Ireland.ie
- The Department for Foreign Affairs and Trade recommend that any Irish Citizens travelling abroad register their details at the link below. This information enables the Department to contact you and provide assistance when and if necessary. This is only available outside the Common Travel Area (Ireland/Great Britain, the Isle of Man, the Channel Islands and Guernsey).
