Scouting Ireland

Scouting Ireland was founded in 2003 after the membership of Scouting Ireland (CSI) and Scouting Ireland (SAI) voted to form a single, all-Ireland Scout movement. Before this, Scouting had been operating in Ireland since 1908.

The aim of Scouting Ireland is to encourage the Social, Physical, Intellectual, Character, Emotional and Spiritual development of young people so that they may achieve their full potential and, as responsible citizens, improve society.

Scouting Ireland achieves its aim through a system of progressive self-education, known as the Scout Method, the principal elements of which are:

- Voluntary membership of a group which, guided by adults, is increasingly self-governing in its successive age groups.
- Commitment to a code of living as expressed in the Promise & Law, the meaning of which is expanded as the member grows towards maturity.
- The provision of a wide range of attractive, constructive, and challenging activities, including opportunities for adventure and exploration both indoors and outdoors.
- The provision of opportunities for leadership and responsibility.
- Learning by doing.
- Encouragement of activity in small groups. An award scheme, which encourages participation in its full range of activities and provides recognition of individual and group achievements.
- Symbolic Framework.

Scouting Ireland has a membership of over 38,000 people, which includes 9,800 adult volunteers. We operate in over 400 communities across the thirty-two counties of Ireland and are supported by a staff of fifty professionals working in various areas.

Details of the Scouting Ireland Programme, governance structures, recent annual reports, etc., can be seen on www.scouts.ie.
